

Téarmaí agus Coinníollacha COLÁISTE CHARA

Terms and Conditions, COLÁISTE CHARA

By signing and submitting an application form accessible on www.colaistechara.com, you are submitting to having read, understood and fully accepted all of Coláiste Chara's terms and conditions, as listed thereafter.

- Although the terms and conditions at the time of booking apply when booking is made, our terms and conditions may change over time. It is your responsibility to check regularly whether the terms and conditions have changed.
- These provisions (terms, conditions, disclaimers and exclusions) shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Ireland. If any of these provisions are deemed to be found unlawful, void or for any reason unenforceable then the provision or provisions so found shall be deemed severable and shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions. Booking
- Coláiste Chara reserves the right of attendance on our courses.
- Coláiste Chara reserves the right to refuse admission to a student if there is reason to believe that he/she would not benefit from the course e.g. if a student does not study Irish in school or does not have enough Irish to comply with Riail na Gaeilge.
- Coláiste Chara reserves the right to refuse admission to a student if there is reason to believe that he/she would not benefit from the course, or for reasons of health and safety.
- Coláiste Chara does not take responsibility for errors made by persons filling in the course date on the application form.

In the event that your student is deemed eligible to attend a Coláiste Chara course and the chosen course is full, Coláiste Chara will contact you, to best advise you in relation to waiting lists, other available courses and refunds.

- When a course is full, a waiting list is opened in accordance with our admissions policy. Health:

- Coláiste Chara reserves the right to cancel courses based on statistical information and government guidelines regarding Covid 19.
- In accordance with HSE guidelines, in the event of your child displaying symptoms of a contagious illness e.g. mumps, viral infection, flu, meningitis etc it will be necessary for you to take your child home to avoid the spread of the illness.
- Medical attention is available during courses. Coláiste Chara is not responsible for the cost of doctor's visits, prescriptions or hospitalisation.

Terms and Conditions. All medicines and medical apparatus must be given to the college authorities/ Bean an tí as soon as the course begins. This includes both prescription and non- prescription medicine. The Bean an Tí will supervise and monitor the administration of all medicines. Parents must explain this requirement to the student. Coláiste Chara accepts no responsibility for medicines that are not handed to the Bean an Tí, and that they have not been made aware of. Exceptions to this can be granted by the course director in certain cases; i.e. inhalers...

- Dress Code: In keeping with our child protection policy Coláiste Chara has introduced a simple dress code.

1. Due to our diverse age group the code requires that underclothes must be covered at all times.
2. Students may wear beachwear only on the beach.
3. Students must refrain from wearing potentially offensive logos on their clothing, jewellery etc. Code of Conduct/Rules

- It is the responsibility of parents/guardians to ensure that their children be aware of the College Rules and Code of Conduct in Coláiste Chara. These can be found on the college website www.colaiشتهchara.com under Policies.

- No student may attend a course in Coláiste Chara until both he/she and his/her parents accept these rules and Code of Conduct, which is signified by their signatures on the application form.
